1. Katie Eyre (Plaintiff), Fact Witness (page 2)

Katie Eyre
Testimony	Defendants' Objection(s): Irrelevant, Waste of Time, Confusion
Before Measure 114 took effect, Eyre was in the process of obtaining a concealed handgun license ("CHL") in Oregon.	Rules 401/403: Whether Ms. Eyre has sought or obtained a CHL is irrelevant or of only marginal relevance; the probative value, if any, of this testimony is substantially outweighed by the likelihood that it would result in wasted time or would confuse the issues at trial.

2. Salam Fatohi (for Plaintiff National Shooting Sports Foundation), Fact Witness (page 3)

Salam Fatohi
Testimony	Defendants' Objection(s): Personal Knowledge, Hearsay, Improper Lay Testimony, Undisclosed Expert Testimony
[Fatohi will testify that] Exhibit 33 is a record of a regularly conducted activity by NSSF within the scope of its business; it is a record of acts, events, conditions, and/or opinions made at or near the time by—or from information transmitted by—someone with knowledge; the record was kept in the course of a regularly conducted activity of NSSF; making the record was a regular practice of that activity; and neither the source of information nor the method or circumstances of preparation indicate a lack of trustworthiness. Fatohi will be prepared to testify regarding . . . NSSF's business records (specifically Exhibit 33)[.] Fatohi will be prepared to testify regarding . . . NSSF's information and knowledge regarding the number and types of firearms and magazines owned and used by Americans.	Rule 602; Rule 701; Rule 801/802; FRCP 26(a)(2): Testimony about information contained in Plaintiffs' Exhibit 33 and any other purported business records or about the number and types of firearms and magazines owned and used by Americans broadly would constitute hearsay or an opinion based on technical or other specialized knowledge not proper for a lay witness. In the event that Mr. Fatohi is qualified to render such an expert opinion, his testimony was not timely disclosed as expert testimony as required under FRCP 26(a)(2).

3. Damian Bunting (Plaintiff), Fact Witness (page 5)

Damian Bunting
Testimony	Defendants' Objection(s): Irrelevant, Waste of Time, Confusion
Bunting is certified by the Oregon Department of Public Safety Standards and Training (DPSST) under the Armed Private Security program. He has received firearms training certified by DPSST.	Rules 401/403: Whether Mr. Bunting has received certification through DPSST is irrelevant or of only marginal relevance; the probative value, if any, of this testimony is substantially outweighed by the likelihood that it would result in wasted time or would confuse the issues at trial.

4. Matthew French (for Plaintiff Sportsman's Warehouse, Inc.), Fact Witness (page 10)

Matthew French
Testimony	Defendants' Objection(s) Personal Knowledge, Hearsay
[Mr. French will testify] that each Sportsman's location in Oregon . . . will lose revenues if and when Measure 114 goes into effect. He will also testify concerning Sport[s]man's recent sales in Oregon of weapons with and without a capacity in excess of ten rounds.	Rule 602; Rule 801/802: No evidence that Mr. French has personal knowledge of Sportsman's Warehouse's recent sales or expected future revenues in Oregon. To the extent that Mr. French's purported knowledge is based on information obtained from other sources, it is based on hearsay.
